- W: So, Jamie, we all know you are a very famous writer. Tell us a little about your routine.

M: Well, I'm married and I've got a baby daughter, so I always wake up early during the week, about 7. I need silence to work so when my wife takes the baby to the park in the morning, I write. We usually have lunch at about midday and then I play with my daughter while my wife is at work. She's a teacher and she works in a primary school. She returns home at about 6 p.m. and then we have dinner together. We go for a walk after dinner and once or twice a week we visit my brother or my wife's sister. They live near here. We don't watch TV at night, only at weekends. We go to bed at about 11.

1b Jamie wakes up at seven in the morning; Jamie works at ten thirty in the morning; They have lunch at noon; Jamie plays with his daughter at three in the afternoon; Jamie's wife returns home at six in the afternoon; They go to bed at eleven in the evening.

- 1 (TM) shelves

I live in a relatively big house, but my bedroom is rather small. As you walk in, there's a cupboard on the right-hand side and that's where I keep my clothes and also my books. You see, there aren't any shelves in my bedroom. There's a desk opposite the cupboard. On this desk there's a computer monitor and, you know, my keyboard, mouse and computer disks, too. I always leave lots of CDs on my desk and under my bed. My mum says I'm not a tidy person. But the thing is: I like music very much and there just isn't enough space in the room! Next to the desk there's a bed, on one side, and a compact sound system on a little table on the other.

- Paul: Well, my idea of a good time is basically hanging out with my friends and having a few drinks with them. I don't like dancing very much, but I like going to the cinema. When I can't go out, watching a good film on video is something I also find very pleasant. But not horror films. I don't know why, but they make me fall asleep.
- Kate: I love shopping for clothes. I suppose I am what you might call a 'fashion girl'. I especially like Diesel jeans and Prada sunglasses. In fact, fashion is what moves me. I like reading fashion magazines, going to fashion shows; well, anything related to fashion. What I don't like is electronic music and, God forbid, blind dates!
- Tricia: Music - that's what I like. Jazz, especially. I think electronic music is all right but I still prefer a jazzy rhythm. But, mind you, I hate disco music. I find it so superficial and boring. Jazz always means something and that's why I like it.
